

Sikorsky Maintenance and Modification

Let Our Experience Shape Yours

You'll choose us to work on your Sikorsky aircraft for a couple reasons.

We like what we do. We're here on purpose, because we want to be. Working as a team serves you better.

We put a lot of effort into being the best at providing maintenance and repairs. In fact, Summit Aviation is one of the most experienced Sikorsky helicopter maintenance providers in the industry.

We're an Authorized Sikorsky Service Center.

We've done the hard work of meeting Sikorsky's high safety and certification standards. Our dedication to keeping our operators safely vertical goes back longer than 30 years.
