

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Located in Middletown, Delaware, Summit Aviation offers aircraft maintenance, modifications, avionics, engines, mission equipment integration, paint, FBO, sales & leasing, field training, flight testing support and OTC parts sales. Summit holds several factory authorizations and is a DoD approved contractor. Its manufacturing arm has been recognized for its quality, commitment to meeting delivery schedules, sustained high performance and its focus on customer satisfaction.

Certifications

- ISO 9001:2015, AS9110:2016, ISO 9001:2015 and AS9100:2016
- Certified Part 145 Repair Station
- EASA Certified

Customers

Summit supports multiple lines of business including:

- U.S. Government Department of Defense and International Aircraft
- U.S. Government Non Department of Defense and Special Mission Aircraft
- General and Corporate Aviation
- State and Local Law Enforcement
- Manufacturing and Assembly Capabilities

Facility Overview

- Summit airport (KEVY) is owned and operated by Summit Aviation
- North/South runway 17/35 is 4500 feet by 66 feet – medium size jets and turboprop capable
- 120,000 square feet of hangar space
- 11,500 square feet of office space
- 9,200 square foot paint facility
- DoD-Approved contractor facility
- Fenced in facility with 24/7 video surveillance

Services Provided

- Inspection maintenance, repair, and modifications to airframes, engines, and avionics systems
- Structural, systems, and test pilot facilities capable of approving designs for structural modification/repairs, flight test/system analysis and human factors
- Full service MRO | FBO facility
- Special mission aircraft modifications

Aircraft Serviced

- Airbus
- Beechcraft King Air
- Beechjet
- Bell*
- Boeing
- Cessna*
- Leonardo
- MD helicopters
- Pilatus
- Sikorsky*
- Other light jet model aircraft

* Authorized Service Center

Summit Manufacturing Facilities

- Greensboro, North Carolina

Summit Manufacturing Certifications

- ISO 9001:2015 and AS9100:2016

Supporting Vets

Summit Aviation is committed to hiring veterans. In 2023, the company received its fifth consecutive HIRE Vets Platinum Medallion Award from the U.S. Department of Labor for its efforts to recruit, employ and retain the nation's veterans. More than half of the shop floor employees at Summit Aviation are United States Armed Forces veterans, reflecting its ongoing commitment to supporting and recognizing the contributions of military veterans in the workforce.

